

Speakers and Presenters

1. Erasmo Anthony Mbilinyi

Mr. Erasmo Mbilinyi has 27 years working experience, 24 of which in the communications Industry. In the 24 years, 18 years he worked in different positions in Human Resource Management and Administration. Mr. Mbilinyi was also the first Manager of Lake Zone office in North West Tanzania for 6 years from 2006 to 2012 performing mainly all major functions of the Authority and representing the Authority in the area.

While working in Human Resource Management he took lead in 4 successful major organization structural reforms in TCRA. He has also been pivotal in capacity building issues in TCRA to ensure the organization take the lead in directing the sector development in line with technological changes.

He is currently the manager of Human Resource and Administration, the position he took since 2012 playing a critical role in advising and supervision of all matters relating to Human Resource and Administration including but not limited to Human Resources Planning, Recruitment, Compensations, payroll management, capacity building and initiation of Staff Policies and Regulations.

Mr. Mbilinyi is passionate about Human Resources and Administration the work he has done almost throughout his career. His goal is to contribute to the growth of the sector by providing critical support function to the organization through enhancement of management of employee and ensure they contribute to the national development.

MR. Mbilinyi holds a Master of Business Administration (MBA) from the University of Dar es Salaam which he graduated in November, 2006, Bachelor of Arts (Hons) in Political Science and Public Administration from the University of Dar es Salaam which he graduated in November, 1995 and Diploma in Telecommunications Management from USTTI, USA which he graduated July, 2001. He has also attended a number of short courses in communication and management including Bullet Proof Manager Course from Crestcom of USA.

2. Béatrice Leuwe Fotso

Béatrice Leuwe Fotso is an experienced International Development professional with good practical knowledge from leading programmes and organisations strategically towards sustainable results. She involved in managing Smart City Transportation, ICT for Education, Transparency and Accountability, implementation of ICT4 Development Programmes and results follow-up of projects.

In her more than 10 years of working experience human rights, digitalisation and development, she has worked with more than 15 countries in Africa, Europe, South East Asia and West Center South America. She is also a trainer in project management, development tools and strategies, and event planner.

With a background in law, her career spans over working with capacity building and telecommunication, Human Rights and Development with specific interest in public administrations, ICT4Development/Migration, and Gender and Diversity.

3. Arnold Kibuuka

Project Officer for Digital Financial Services, International Telecommunications Union (ITU)

Arnold Kibuuka brings over a decade of expertise to the telecommunications and FinTech sectors.

In his current capacity, he concentrates on assisting countries in establishing DFS security labs, implementing security assurance frameworks, and conducting cyber resilience exercises.

Additionally, he is engaged in investigating evolving security threats. Arnold has played an instrumental role in the development of the Govstack payments building block.

4. Dr. Rosie McDonald

Dr. Rosie McDonald is an E-waste Data Associate Officer within the ITU's Telecommunication Development Bureau (BDT).

Her work focuses on research, capacity building (including e-learning development) and project management in relation to e-waste data and statistics as part of the Global E-waste Statistics Partnership and green digital transformation through monitoring greenhouse gas emissions and energy use from the ICT sector.

Prior to ITU, her work focused on greenhouse gas modelling for the land use, land use change and forestry (LULUCF) sector of the UK national greenhouse gas inventory.

She holds a PhD in Environment Sciences from the UK Centre for Ecology & Hydrology, an MSc in Environmental Protection and Management from The University of Edinburgh (UK), and a BSc in Geography from the University of Aberdeen (UK).